14.2. The Parties acknowledge the anti-corruption measures set out in the additional anti-corruption provisions of this Agreement and shall ensure cooperation in respect of their observance.

14.3. Each Party warrants that, at the time of entering into the Agreement, neither it nor its executive bodies, officers, or employees have unlawfully transferred money or material valuables in connection with the Agreement, allowed the receipt of, offered, provided, or promised unofficial money or other material valuables in exchange for the conclusion of the Agreement, nor received material or any other privileges or advantages of any kind (nor created an impression of the possibility of such actions in the future).

14.4. The parties shall not permit the commission of any corrupt acts by officials and employees at any time and in any form, directly or indirectly (including through third parties).

14.5. The parties shall not permit the legalization of illegally obtained income, and, if it is known to the parties that property constitutes income derived from criminal activity, shall not permit the giving of a lawful appearance to its origin by transferring, converting into other property, or exchanging it, nor the concealment of the true nature, source, location, method of disposal and movement of such funds or other property, or of the true ownership right to such funds or other property, or of the person to whom such right belongs.

14.6. In the event of extortion, incitement, pressure, or threats aimed at committing a corruption offense, a party shall immediately notify the other party, as well as the authorized state bodies, thereof.

14.7. The parties, with respect to persons under their control and acting on their behalf in the sale and transfer of goods, services and works, or in carrying out other actions in their interests, shall:

a) provide instructions and explanations regarding the inadmissibility of corrupt acts and the necessity of an intolerant attitude toward them;

b) not use them as intermediaries for committing corrupt acts;

c) engage them in work solely within the scope of production necessity in the course of the party's ordinary day-to-day activities;

d) not make unreasonably excessive payments to them in excess of the remuneration established for services rendered by them within the framework of legislation.

14.8. The parties guarantee that no pressure shall be applied to persons under their control acting on their behalf in connection with their reporting of facts of violation of the obligations established by the additional anti-corruption conditions of this Agreement.

14.9. If one party becomes aware that the other party has committed a breach of the obligations established in clause 25 of this Agreement, it shall immediately notify the other party thereof and demand that appropriate measures be taken and that it be informed of the work carried out.

14.10. If, at the request of one party, the other party fails to take appropriate measures or fails to inform of the results of their consideration, the first party shall be entitled to unilaterally suspend the Agreement, terminate it, and demand full compensation for the damage caused.

15. Additional conditions relating to the Sanctions List

15.1. The Borrower/Client ensures and warrants strict compliance with the restrictions and prohibitions relating to the Sanctions List when conducting banking operations on the bank account. By signing this Agreement, the Borrower/Client confirms compliance with the restrictions and prohibitions relating to the Sanctions List.

15.2. The Borrower/Client shall not enter into agreements, transactions, or contracts with persons included on the Sanctions List, nor with any persons in respect of whom there are reasonable grounds to assume that they may be acting in the interests of persons included on the Sanctions List.

15.3. The Borrower/Client shall not make payments to persons included on the Sanctions List, or on their behalf, under any agreements, transactions, or contracts.

15.4. If the documents and information submitted by the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower) to the Bank prove to be false, unreliable, and/or incorrect, or if the conditions stipulated in this paragraph are not complied with by the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower), the Bank shall not be liable for the return, seizure, freezing, or loss of funds debited as a result of banking operations carried out on the basis of the instructions of the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower).

15.5. The Bank shall not be liable for the application to the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower) by an authorized body, organization, or banks of restrictive and prohibitive measures (seizure of funds, refusal of payment, etc.) on the basis of the Sanctions List, and shall not assume an obligation to compensate for damage caused to the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower) as a result of the Bank's non-performance or improper performance of its obligations under this Agreement due to the restrictions and prohibitions related to the Sanctions List.

15.6. The Bank shall be entitled not to carry out, in favor of banks and/or counterparties, banking operations restricted or prohibited by the legislation of other states in respect of the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower). In such case, the Bank shall not be liable for banking operations not carried out under foreign trade contracts.

15.7. If, as a result of the performance of the instructions of the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower), property or non-property sanctions are applied to the Bank, the Borrower/Client (jointly with the Co-Borrower) undertakes to compensate the Bank for the damage arising from the sanctions applied.

16. Final provisions

16.1. This Agreement shall enter into force from the date of its signing by the Parties and shall remain in effect until the Borrower (Co-Borrower) has fully performed all obligations assumed.

16.2. In the event of any amendments to the legislation as a result of which any provision of this Agreement ceases to comply with the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan, this shall not affect the performance of the remaining provisions of the Agreement; such provision shall be replaced as soon as possible with another provision most closely aligned in meaning and purpose to the one being replaced.

16.3. Each Party undertakes to maintain strict confidentiality of information relating to the subject matter and terms of this Agreement and to take all measures to protect such information from disclosure. The transfer of such information to third parties (including its publication or disclosure) shall be permitted only in cases expressly provided for by the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan, or with the written consent of the other Party.

16.4. Unilateral repudiation of obligations under this Agreement shall not be permitted.

16.5. The Bank may, at its discretion, exercise or refrain from exercising any rights available to it under this Agreement in respect of the Borrower (Co-Borrower). The Bank's failure to exercise or partial exercise of such rights shall not constitute a waiver of them; they may be exercised at any time thereafter.

16.6. All amendments and additions to this Agreement shall be made in writing and signed by the Borrower, the Co-Borrower, and the Bank.

16.7. All amendments and additions made to this Agreement shall constitute an integral part thereof.
